

To whom it may concern at FCC:

Hello, My name is Kari Castino. I am an avid listener to KLOVE radio, a Christian broadcast program. I have learned that there are some considerations being made that may change the way that KLOVE is able to operate. Specifically the requirement of a community advisory board and the requirement of additional staffing. I ask that you would allow KLOVE and all radio stations affected to continue as they have in providing for the needs of their listeners. The changes they are being purposed would add additional financial strain to broadcasts that are listener funded and possibly cause them to fold. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
Kari Castino
